JOHN S. GARDNER ADDRESSES LOCAL TOMATO GROWERS

1,200,000 Plants Have Been Ordered S. V. Foy Reports

Sixty-five tomato growers heard John S. Gardner from the College of Agriculture discuss the production of Green-wrap Tomatoes, in the County Agriculture Extension office, at 2:00 p.m. Monday, April 10, according to County Agent S. V. Foy.

The production of the Green-wrap was discussed from soil preparation to picking by Mr. Gardner. Mr. Gardner states that at least 30-bushel corn land should be selected for tomatoes, and that 40 to 60-bushel corn land is much better. Manure was highly recommended by Mr. Gardner, but emphasis was placed on the manure being well balanced with super-phosphate. If manure is not available, 500 to 1000 pounds of complete fertilizer such as 4-8-4 or 5-10-5 mixture was recommended.

The growers were advised on spraying for insects and diseases. A careful watch should be made for the flea-beetle that attacks the plants immediately after transplanting.

W. H. Brooks, president of the Calloway County Vegetable Co., made some encouraging remarks in regard to marketing the tomatoes. Mr. Brooks stressed that growers know how and when to pick. Bring only one's and two's to the shed and leave all culls at home.

The growers attending the meeting ask that Mr. Gardner come to Calloway county again at picking time.

Orders for 1,200,000 plants have been placed with the Tomato Co. to date, according to County Agent S. V. Foy.

The County Agent invites the tomato growers to his office at any time his services are needed in the production of tomatoes.

Lt. James Ed Diuguid Arrives Safely In North Africa

Lt. James Ed Diuguid, son of Mrs. Ed Filbeck and Mr. Filbeck of 602 Main street, has arrived safely in North Africa, according to letters from him in the last few days.

Kentucky Society For Crippled Children Plans to Build Convalescent Home

A Kentucky boy who couldn't walk three years ago is fighting in Italy today, prouder than most American soldiers of his chance to help win the war. A girl who couldn't sit up two years ago—and hadn't sat up for seven years of her childhood—today is helping in a war plant; and she, too, is prouder than most of her war work.

The boy and girl, still in their teens, are two of thousands of crippled children who got a chance to live and help through the work of the Kentucky Society for Crippled Children. Hundreds more are waiting this year for the success of the Easter campaign, March 25-April 9, to get their chance at surgery, correction, treatment and training that will make them normal, healthy and useful.

Such boys and girls waiting for their chance lend an urgency to the 1944 campaign for $100,000.

The coming year's work with the Kentucky Crippled Children Commission "is a bigger and more expensive job than usual," according to County Chairman T. O. Turner of the Easter drive.

"All the handicapped boys and girls we can reach must be put on their feet when all possible manpower is needed," said Mr. Turner. The Society is also undertaking the vital job of providing a convalescent home in the country, to be built on ten acres of rolling bluegrass near Lexington after the war. The thousands of crippled children discharged from hospitals and made room for those needing hospitalization.

The library has spent over $200 this year on new material. New sewing machines have been bought for the economics room. Mrs. Estelle Erwin has taught the girls the war-time problems in home management.

The school emphasizes sports and physical training, welding, and all the things that a well rounded education demands. The lunch room is a tribute to any community. The students and teachers have contributed to the drives demanded by the war. Included in these drives was the Red Cross drive in which the fifth grade won first place. Jimmie Freeman and Zane Jones were leaders in this drive. Miss Modest Brandon is the teacher.

A new score board has been added to the gymnasium and paid for largely by the senior and junior classes. Miss Leta Grey Brandon, basketball queen, has resigned well over her charges.

The P.T.A., with Mrs. Paul Dail as president, has contributed to the welfare of the school. Mrs. Geraldine Myers has added a worthwhile feature to the system by offering a commercial course to the students.

Woman's Society of Memphis Conference Ends Today

250 Delegates Here; Bishop J. L. Decell Speaks On Peace

Murray Methodist women were host to the Memphis Conference of the Woman's Society of Christian Service at the local Methodist church where more than 250 delegate registered Tuesday for the three-day meet. These guests were received in the homes of the city. The Woman's Club and the First Christian Church served meals for the group. Mrs. Homer Tatum, president, presided over the sessions. Mrs. V. E. Windsor, president of the Murray Society, was host to the convention. The Rev. T. H. Mullins, Jr., is pastor of the church. Bishop J. Lloyd Decell spoke to the conference Tuesday evening on the "Peace for Which We Pray." Mrs. Rose May Butler, missionary to China and who returned on the Gripsholm, and a native of Hopkinsville, appeared on the program Wednesday when she spoke on "Singing the Lord's Song in a Strange Land."

The district secretaries present were: Mrs. B. F. Parr, Atlanta, Tenn.; Mrs. W. L. Moore, Tigrett, Tenn.; Mrs. E. A. Williams, Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. C. E. Stoker, Bruceton, Tenn.; Mrs. Charles Henderson, Memphis; Mrs. W. C. Moore, Paducah; Mrs. G. C. McLaughlin, Paris.

Conference officers present were: Mrs. Homer Tatum, Atlanta, Tenn., president; Mrs. M. H. Potts, president, Martin, Tenn.; Mrs. K. W. Warden, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Robert C. Mayo, recording secretary, Memphis, Mrs. J. V. McLean, Jackson, treasurer.

Secretaries present were: Mrs. K. N. Webb, Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. B. F. Graves, Jackson, Tenn.; Mrs. R. E. Hooks, Mercer, Tenn.; Mrs. N. R. York, Friendship, Tenn.; Mrs. William Rhodes, Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. N. S. Davis, Halls, Tenn.; Mrs. L. C. Templeton, Memphis, Mrs. Carl McRae, Clinden, Tenn., and Mrs. T. S. McFerrin, Memphis, Tenn.

The theme of the conference was "Thy Kingdom Come." Mrs. Velma Maynard, from the board of missions of church extensions of the Woman's division, New York, gave a worship program "Prepare the Way."

The financial report gave a total of $55,997.18 collected for the year and $37,125.54 paid on the pledge to missions. This amount was a marked increase over the amount of last year.

The monthly meeting of the preachers in the Paris District was a luncheon at the Hotel National Tuesday. Bishop Decell spoke. Rev. R. A. Clark, district superintendent, presided. The ministers attended the conference in a body in the afternoon.

The next conference will be held in Madison Heights, Memphis, Tenn.

Pages for the meeting were Misses Mary Sue Cunningham, Mary Jo Skaggs, Patricia Outland, Carolyn Vaughn, and Alida Farnham.

Local people who contributed to the program were: Miss Charlotte Durkee, Miss Alice Waters, Miss Evelyn Mayme Ryan, and Curtis Hughes.

One of the highlights on the program was the address of Bishop Decell. He urged that the Pope, bishops, and pastors be "left out" at the peace table.

"Discussing 'The Peace for Which We Pray,'" Bishop Decell said, "I don't think we need the Pope at the peace table—or a bishop, or a pastor." The reason he gave was his belief that "the church is not a temporal authority."

"We are not concerned so much about personalities at the peace table as we are the principles of the peace table. I think a woman ought to be there and I'm sure one will be there."

The peace must mean vice things, "material well-being, absence of strife, and reconciliation with God."

Principles that must be included at the peace table are: "Peace without Revenge, Tolerance in Diversity, Preventive of War and Righteousness."

"Believing in the Ten Commandments and the Sermon on the Mount, I wouldn't be a Socialist or a Communist," the bishop said. "However, you aren't going to have peace in the world with nearly two-thirds of the people never knowing what it is to have enough to eat."

WHAT SERVICE MEN WANT

In a recent survey released by O.W.I., it was shown that service men like to get: Letters from home; recent pictures of family and friends; cigarette lighters that will light in the wind; shockproof and water proof wrist watches with luminous dials; hunting knives; small cameras; subscriptions to home-town newspapers; leak-proof fountain pens and pencils with extra leads; and pipes, tobacco and cigars.

All these things with the exception of cigarette lighters and perhaps a few others, are available. We all want to make these fellows know that we are doing everything we can to make them as happy as possible while they are away from home. I note among the things they want is the home town newspaper. I wish that every man and woman from this county could read each week the Ledger & Times. This would be a letter from home, just as regularly as the mail could get to him or her.

It carries what the folks here are doing, what the service folks are doing. It contains the weddings, the deaths, the births, the home front drives for Red Cross, War Bonds, the Russian Relief Drive, the crippled children drive, the farm news, and the news of the entire county. One soldier in New Guinea wrote this week for his paper so he could keep up with the school and political doings and hear what the farmers were getting for their products.

The price of the paper is less than two cents per week for all service men. A dollar spent for a subscription to the home town paper that carries news of interest to those away from home would be well spent for one that is dear and homesick for news from good old Calloway County. Why not send it to your service man or woman as a gift?

WHAT TO WRITE SERVICE MEN

TELL HIM:
 How the family is doing everything possible to help in the war. How everyone is buying War Bonds and Stamps.

How anxious the family is for the boy's return.
 How well and busy the family is.
 What is doing in the community.
DON'T TELL HIM:
 Your troubles. He has his own.
 Your complaints. He can't do anything about them.
 About things you are deprived of.
 Doleful predictions about the future. He's fighting for that future.
 Unnecessary details about financial troubles.

 We enjoy reading the paper so much that we don't want to let it go. Thank you very much.
 Mrs. Harry Landrum.
 Thank you for the renewal and the kind attention you made concerning the paper. L.H.

BOEWELL, New Mexico, April 3, 1944.
 Mrs. George Hart, Editor, Murray, Kentucky.
 Enclosed find $1.00 for four months of the "Dear Old Ledger." May God bless you and the entire staff that you may continue your wonderful work, in putting out such a fine paper. This is a dear old friend of mine.
 Dear Old Ledger & Times.
 Every year from now and every year after the paper it gets.

Homemakers' Schedule

 New Concord Club will meet Friday, April 21.
 This was the bewildering reply. A left-handed thread is a bolt, when the tighter it's.

THIS WEEK IN O. P. A.

Farm Transportation Committees
 To facilitate rationing of gasoline to farmers for off-highway use, farm transportation committees are being set up in each of Louisville OPA District's 64 counties. All applications from farmers for non-highway gas rations, both new and renewal, will be referred to these committees for recommendations. The committees will be made up of farmers.

Take Care Of Ration Books
 OPA urges housewives to take good care of ration books because the replacement supply is limited. Book Four will be in use about three times as long as earlier food books. Only airplane stamp No. 1 for shoes is now valid in Book Three, but other stamps in the book may be designated for use later. Book One is of no further value after shoe stamp 18, good through April 30, has been used.

No Increase In Corn Prices
 No increase in the price of corn is contemplated during the 1944 crop year. Price Administrator Chester Bowles has announced, offering the following explanation: "Producers of corn received an average price of $1.13 per bushel on February 15, 1944, which was 4 per cent over the $1.09 national parity on that date. Present ceiling prices for corn assure farmers selling this grain the highest price since the short crop year of 1936-1937."

"An increase in the price of corn would not bring any substantial increase in corn production and would have the adverse effect of requiring increased prices on beef, veal, lamb, pork, butter, eggs, poultry and other livestock products—without increasing the output of these livestock products."

"While farmers selling corn for cash would benefit from increased corn prices, the great majority of farmers feeding corn to poultry and livestock would suffer."

Mail Canning Sugar Applications
 Applications for home canning sugar should be mailed to local boards—not taken in person. Applications presented in person at board offices must be left there mailed. Time and travel can be saved by handling the entire transaction by mail.

The correct stamp to attach to applications for canning sugar is "SPARE" Stamp No. 37. There are reports that some applicants are mistakenly using Sugar Stamp No. 37.

Checks Fertilizer Prices
 Reports have reached the District Office that dealers in some sections are "charging above ceiling" prices for fertilizer. Specific dollars-and-cents ceiling prices have been set for all grades of fertilizer sold in retail in Kentucky. A discount of five per cent is provided on cash purchases. "Time" purchases are allowed to be six per cent in excess.

No additions to the prices are permitted except that in shipments of less than carlots by rail, the difference between carlot and less-than-carlot freight rates may be added. Premium brands may take a price above the maximum quoted, no greater than cents per ton than was in effect February 16-20, 1942.

Exempt From Price Control
 Substituted seed potatoes are declared exempt from price control in an interpretation affecting a number of Kentucky potato growers. For many years, some potato growers have followed a practice of treating seed potatoes, cutting the potatoes up and putting them in cold storage.

Advance-Validity For Farm Meat Purchases
 Consumers buying meat directly from farmers may continue to use red stamps ahead of the time these stamps are valid for use in stores—in addition to the stamps now valid for retail use. A8 through J8; the next 18 stamps, K8 through Z8 and A5 through C5 (value 180 points) may now be used in buying meat directly from farmers.

Back the attack! Buy War Bonds.

RATIONING AT A GLANCE

Processed Foods

IN THE BOLD BAD DAYS of the frontier when Two-Gun Jake swooped down on a community "a-fannin' an' a-foggin'", the inhabitants went into hiding until he had ransacked the local bank and coaxed out all the money he could get. Modern robbers are not so noisy or so picturesque, but their activities are just as much a risk as ever.

THEFT to a burglar is a serious profession. Sentiment and partiality are not elements of his make-up.

So and so's home is the one picked for a visit to-night—maybe it will be your home to-morrow night.

A burglary insurance policy is positive security against financial loss at least.

Improved Uniform International LESSON

Lesson for April 16

SAUL'S EARLY PREACHING
LESSON TEXT: Acts 9:1-30; 11:25, 26.
GOLDEN TEXT: I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto every one that believeth.—Romans 1:16.

"A changed man"—that oft-used expression assumes real meaning as it is applied to one who has experienced the redeeming grace of God in Christ. In a special sense this is true of Paul, whose transformed life amazed those who knew him before he had met Christ on the Damascus road.

In our lesson we find him in three different cities, serving his new-found Master and Lord.

I. At Damascus—Confounding the Jews (9:1-25).
"Straightaway," what a good word to apply to the servant of the Lord. Paul did not hesitate to declare his faith in Christ, to proclaim that the One who had redeemed him was able also to save others.

It is the normal and proper expression of Christian faith to give testimony to others. That should be true of every believer. With Paul there was the added element of his call to preach; for God had ordained that he should be His chosen vessel for that purpose (Acts 9:15).

One is impressed by the prompt and unhesitating obedience of so many of Christ's followers of whom we read in the New Testament. No doubt that explains their power and wide usefulness. We could learn of them.

Paul's message was Christ. He proved to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ (v. 22), the One of whom their Old Testament Scriptures spoke and for whom they professed to be looking. He declared Him to be the Son of God (v. 20).

They were unwilling to accept the message. They were "amazed" at the proclamation, "but they rejected it; for it is his life and he had to escape for his life. But another city must hear his witness, so we find him—

II. At Jerusalem—Disputing With the Grecians (9:26-30).
Knowing his violent persecution of the church, the disciples in Jerusalem were surprised. Perhaps there was a measure of justification for such an attitude, but one is glad that there was present the generous, open-hearted Barnabas, ready to believe in his new brother in Christ and to sponsor him in the church.

A word of admonition to the church of our day is necessary, regarding the mistake of a new convert or a stranger at home in the fellowship of the saints. There is no need of putting such a one quickly into office or a place of honor, but let him know that he is accepted and believed in, and thus give him an opportunity to grow.

Paul remained in Jerusalem this time for two weeks (Gal. 1:18), going in and out, that is, in friendly fellowship. That is just what the young Christian needs, and should seek.

He also had something to make right. He had joined the Grecian Jews when they disputed with Stephen, and now he found Paul had agreed with and joined them on that occasion. Now by the miracle of regeneration he is a new creature and is on the exactly opposite side. Now he disputes with the Grecians, declaring that Jesus is the Christ. What a blessed change!

They refused to tolerate that word, and preferred to kill him. But the servant of the Lord was kept by Him, and delivered through the good offices of Christian brethren. How often it is true, that the minister must look to the brethren for that kindness which delivers him from distress and danger.

Paul returned for a time to his home city of Tarsus, but when a need of his services arose he was called out, and we find him—

III. At Antioch—Teaching the Christians (11:25, 26).
Persecution spread the believers abroad (Acts 11:19), and like the scattered brands of a bonfire they carried the flame of Christianity far and wide. Thus the gospel came to Antioch, the third greatest city in the world at that day. A revival broke out, and Barnabas was sent from Jerusalem to be of help.

Good and spiritual man that he was (Acts 19:22, 24), Barnabas did nothing to hinder this work of God, but admonished the people to "cleave unto the Lord," that is, to follow Him closely. Would that all spiritual advisers had such a spirit and such sound judgment.

He was also wise in sensing his need of help. So, he went after Paul, the very man to teach these young Christians, and to lead them out into a radiant and abundant life for the Lord.

Here it was that the beautiful name of "Christian" was first applied to believers. "It is believed to have originally been a term of ridicule, but even then it was a testimony, for it declared that these believers were devoted to Christ and concerned only with pleasing and serving Him.

"MUSCLE EXERCISE" PREPARES ARTILLERYMEN FOR INVASION

Headquarters, European Theater of Operations—A period of eating, sleeping and working outdoors in English winter weather; the entire exercise nicknamed "excessive muscle" by the men—was a recent step in preparing one United States Army field artillery unit for its part in the coming invasion of Europe.

Pfc Cornel D. Boyle, 2d, Murray, Kentucky, Route 4, is listed in this group.

While in the field, the men not only fired on the range, getting practice in laying the intensive barrages artillerymen of the Mod-ernized Army have made so familiar to the Nazis, but also worked on fire direction, service of their howitzers in bad weather, surveying, and field communications.

Another phase of this intensive pre-invasion training, calling for long hours and hard work by all of the men is now under way.

The heavy, concentrated barrages from this outfit's big guns, like those which harried the Germans from El Alamein to Italy, may soon be helping to drive the Nazis back on the road to Berlin.

Pc Boyle is the son of Mrs. Annie Boyle who has two other sons, Orville and Herbert, in the service.

RENO, NEV.—Cpl. Ralph W. Wilcox has been promoted to the grade of Sergeant, it was announced today by the Command.

LT. ARMSTRONG SPEAKS AT A.A.U.W. MEETING

LT. J. W. Armstrong was the guest speaker at the meeting of the American Association of University Women which was held on Tuesday evening at the college library. His thesis was that there are lessons from war that we refuse to consider in times of peace. We quote some of the highlights of his splendid address.

"War brings to light the physical fitness of a nation. We had a quarter of a century to repair the weaknesses exposed in the first world war, yet in the present crisis, only 20 per cent of the men applying for entry to the Marine Corps could be accepted, and only 25 per cent in the Army and Navy. People should be educated to the understanding that physical fitness is important in peace as well as in war. Our peace time physical training program seemed designed to give amusement to many and participation to few. The goal should be sound, beautiful bodies and a wholesome mental outlook for all. Contributing factors to the well being of a nation are play-grounds, proper nutrition and good medical supervision.

"War is a great leveler. Equal opportunity for all is a valued tradition of American life. The American social life is flexible. Prior to war a vicious class system was gaining in power as evidenced by pressure groups before the legislature whose selfish aims seemed to be anything at the cost of someone else. War time service is a leveler in that it brings all sorts of people together, and all gain in understanding.

"The American credo, the spiritual outlook, preaches sacrifice, service and devotion, yet our pre-war life seemed aimed only for comfort, security, and ease. We must not lose our ability to serve selflessly, nor fail in our search for the infinite good. Our youth never trained for war, nor believed in war, but in time of need they brought forth a gallantry that was homespun. No future which we should envisage should sell our youth short."

Preceding LT. Armstrong's address the following officers were named to serve A.A.U.W. next year: Miss Nadine Overall, president; Miss Hazel Tarry, vice-president; Mrs. A. C. LaFollette, secretary; and Miss Lula Clayton Beale, treasurer.
